
Tri-City Youth Basketball Association Development Team - Player Expectations

Dear Parents and Players:

It is an expectation of the TCYBA that any child participating on a development team will commit to regularly attend all development team and regular league team practices and games.

Continuing participation on any development team is dependant upon the players continuing attendance at regular league team practices and games. Failure to attend regular league team practices and games will result in dismissal from the development team.

Missing more than 2 development team practices or games without pre-approval from the coach will result in dismissal from the development team.

Development teams are competitive. Playing time in games is solely at the coach's discretion.

I agree to the above terms, and commit to helping my child attend practices and games regularly and punctually
